Lewis & Clark Presentation - Lois Meessen

Lois is very knowledgeable about Lewis and Clark and after talking to her I can say this will be a worthwhile program. As a further note she'll be able to tell us about Jean-Baptiste, son of Sacagawea, the only known member of the Lewis and Clark party buried in Oregon.

Genealogical books will be available for purchase from The Village Genealogy Bookshoppe, and from the Benton County Genealogical Society's selection of new and used books.

Program Review

By David Krebs, Program Chairman

Crystal Lake Cemetery — March 9, 2005
Presented by Judy Juntunen

Cemeteries are fun places, especially for genealogists, as Judy Juntunen reminded us. We should take the time to walk around, read the inscriptions—these are our ancestors, our history, and at the cemetery we are among them. Corvallis' Crystal Lake Cemetery has it all.

Judy had a party of young people helping at the cemetery. At meal time they decided to order pizza. The order went something like this: "You aren't going to believe this— deliver them to the Crystal Lake Cemetery" The man said "OK" and told his people: "If I'm not back in 10 minutes you'd better come looking for me." As the pizza deliverer left, one of the young men on the work party was heard saying "thanks, we're just dying to eat." Thank you, Judy, for sharing with us.

American State Papers, the Public Land Series

This nine-volume set is shelved under US and takes up a shelf by itself. This is a great resource which is currently under-used. Any one of the volumes can be checked out. An index to all the names in the entire set is entitled Grassroots of America is shelved with these and does not circulate. The volumes cover land grant claims from 1789 to 1837. Thirteen states are directly (and abundantly, according to the Introduction) treated: Alabama, Arkansas, Florida, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Louisiana, Michigan, Minnesota, Mississippi, Ohio, and Wisconsin. At least nine others are less directly treated: Georgia, New York, North Carolina, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, South Carolina, Tennessee, Vermont, and Virginia.

The Introduction says: "Perhaps no single commodity was more compelling nor more precious to our predecessors than land. Long before and long after the acquisition of public lands by a newly formed federal government, the question of who was entitled to this land ... remains one of the most significant themes in American history.

"First, there were thousands of frontier folk who viewed themselves as land owners with or without benefit of title. They inhabited the vast territories acquired by the United States government through treaty, purchase, or cession. To some of their contemporaries, these settlers were viewed as mere squatters.... To other observers, including many lawmakers, the chains of titles based upon early grants from sovereigns of Spain, France, or Great Britain, or the acts of cultivation and laying a foundation for a home, sanctioned their occupation of the land. The abundance of this new land made it a suitable means of compensation to those whose sacrifice or struggle had been in the interest of the new government."

The fine print may be somewhat off-putting, but if you're lucky enough to find an ancestor listed in the separate index, Grassroots of America, you won't mind the 8-point lettering. Each volume, arranged by date, also has its own index.

Cemetery Research Items Available For Sale

The Society has the following rolled-up items from Becky Kiger's cemetery research. These are in labeled boxes in the outer library room. We are listing them here in case anyone wants one or more. A donation of one dollar to the Society is suggested. There are also some decorative rubbings from various cemeteries.

Cemetery plats (some with names). We have more than one of several of these.

OSU Thrift Shop Donations

As you know, items we consign at the OSU Thrift Shop to benefit our Book Fund. Remember us as you're sorting and tossing. Items may be delivered to Damaris Reynolds or, if you frequent the Thrift Shop, use the Society number 492.

Kitchen and household items and small appliances sell very well. Please "shine" them up and be sure they are in working order. Clothing items sell less well so they must be in good condition, clean and well-pressed. Fold them carefully and deliver flat. By Pat Cooioican

Upcoming Programs

May 14, 2005 - Danell Aukerman - Archival Storage - What, Where, Why, How.

Genealogical books and Archival storage material will be available for purchase from The Village Genealogy Bookshoppe, and from the Benton County Genealogical Society's selection of new and used books.

June 11, 2005 - Potluck and summer book sale with a program about our own genealogical society library. Bring some books to donate and purchase for summer reading.

September 10, 2005 - "Show and Tell" What Genealogical Experience I had this summer. Impromptu reports by individuals.

October 8, 2005 - ? Update on the Family History Library.

12 November 2005 - ? Wagon Trains East (coming west through eastern Oregon that is).

10 December 2005 - Raffle, Auction, Christmas Party. This event has proven fun for many of us as the way we make our annual contribution to the Society Book Fund as well as picking up some Christmas presents for the grandkids. If you have an item of more than a nominal value please consider a donation right away as a possible raffle item for next December (donations do qualify as charitable tax deductions). We ended up without any suitable raffle item this year and need to get the raffle ticket sales going as soon as possible.

There is some talk that maybe we should cancel this event due to a lack of interest.

14 January 2006 - Genealogy of DNA. Save all the articles references whatever you see. It is felt that we need this program and will put it on ourselves if we can't find someone.

Genealogical books from The Village Genealogy Bookshoppe, and from the Benton County Genealogical Society's selection of new and used books, will be available for purchase at every meeting during 2005.

27th Annual National Genealogical Society Conference in the US

June 1-4, 2005 - at the Nashville Conference Center, Nashville, TN. The conference brings together genealogists and family historians - people who have done research all of their lives and those who have only recently become interested, professionals and non-professionals who have a common desire to learn more about how to find those tidbits of history which refer to their ancestors. For more information and registration, go to: <http://www.eshow2000.com/ngs/>

Were You Seeking Shangle Family Information?

The following is the content of a letter that BCGS received from the Oregon Genealogical Society in Eugene, It reads as follows:

Dear People,

I hope someone in your group will recognize part of the following story, since, as you will see, I don't know exactly to whom I want to write.

On the evening of Tuesday, April 26, I helped a pair of ladies look at some microfilmed newspapers at the University of Oregon Knight Library in Eugene. I gave them a business card for the Oregon Genealogical Society. They said they were from Corvallis and belonged to the Benton County Society. One of the ladies was nearly blind, but knew her research methods very well. They were looking for an obituary for Elizabeth Shangle who died in Portland in March 1916. They found Elizabeth's obituary, then wondered about her husband but didn't have enough information to find him. I didn't think to ask the ladies' names since I supposed our slight business was finished.

Now, quite by accident, I have found a cemetery listing that includes John V. Shangle, who looks to have been in the 1880 census of Ness County, Kansas, with Elizabeth as his wife. I would like to get this additional information into the right hands, but don't know whose they are. I hope you can address your membership generally and find the researchers interested in the SHANGLES so they can get in touch with me. Sincerely, Kent Asmussen, Research Committee, e-mail clandig@aol.com

QUERIES

STARR - BURLINGAME

I am seeking information about any of the Burlingames in the Sheridan, Dilly and Forest Grove areas. I am particularly interested in learning about Eliza Ann Starr, second wife of Anson S. Burlingame, my great great grandfather. They were married in Benton County on November 19, 1885. I have indications that she died in Sheridan, Oregon on September 19, 1905, but I can find no death record or burial place. She was the daughter of John Wesley Starr and Eliza Ann Lucas. Submitted by Lynn Burlingame. If you have any information, please contact Lee or Janice at the e-mail addresses listed on the address page of the newsletter.

2006 Program Suggestions

Sharing Genealogical Resources

"I have quite a few books that might be of interest to someone in the Society. I propose to list a group in the newsletter each month. If there is something that might interest you, give me a call and we can set up a time when you can come to my house and look at the book or books. I will not loan them as I have lost a few that way. I would be willing to look up one or two names, but not a whole lot of stuff and send you the information by email."

WE'VE BEEN AWARDED A SMALL GRANT!

Thanks to Megan Smolenyak Smolenyak, who offers small genealogy grants from her web site, www.honoringourancestors.com, the Benton County Genealogical Society has been awarded $165 to digitize two reels of the Corvallis Times. Here's what the site had to say about it:

"The active members of the Benton County Genealogical Society of Philomath, Oregon, have had a project underway for almost 12 years to index Benton County births and deaths as reported in the Corvallis newspapers from 1865 to 1926 (approximately 9,700 names to date). Progress has been slower than they'd like due to the need for volunteers to schedule time at the few available microfilm readers in the area, so the society will use this grant to digitize two reels of microfilm to allow volunteers to work from their home computers. This is intended as a trial run to see if digitizing the records will speed up the project—not a bad idea for other societies to mimic!"

Megan Smolynak Smolynak is a frequent writer for Ancestry Magazine. According to the blurb at the end of one of her articles, she is the author of Honoring Our Ancestors, In Search of Our Ancestors, and They Came to America. She lectures widely and has appeared in Ancestors, They Came to America and the Today Show, among others.

The films, 2/16/1915 to 2/19/1916 and 2/19/1919 to 12/27/1919, have been sent to a Portland firm to be digitized. Reading each paper page by page will still take the same amount of time, but it is hoped that our volunteers will find working at home more convenient.

Searching for Railroad Ancestors?

The Book Committee has ordered "The Directory of North American Railroads" pertaining to biodata research of Former railroad employees. The book lists associations, archives, museums, etc. "You just might find your railroad ancestor".

If you are searching for railroad ancestors, the Railroad Retirement Board is an agency of the United States Government, headquartered in Washington DC is a good place to begin your search. There is a District office in Portland which might be the most convenient starting point to search for details about a retired railroad employee. The address, phone number and web site address are:
