Benton County Genealogical Society

ATED IN Philomath, Oregon

January 2002

Volume Seventeen Number One

Triple Breakout Seminars

The meeting January 12th is a working session. Please bring resource materials and problems you are working on now. The groups will be:

VIRGINIA moderated by Bill Gleaves.

COMPUTERS moderated by Danell Aukerman.

NEWYORK moderated by Gene Newcomb.

[Your name could have been on any one of these groups. See the article on the back page about opportunities to volunteer.]

This is an opportunity to work on your own interests with likeminded folks. Please think of what you have that might be shared as well as what your specific problems are. The three groups will each go off in a corner and talk. If you want to attend more than one group, you will have to "table-hop." If you have suggestions for other topics, please try to present them in advance. We do this every year but could do it more often if the members find it profitable.

Kith and Kin

By Charlene Talbot

Emergence of a Genealogist: Mary Yoke

"I've only been doing this for fifteen or sixteen years," Mary Yoke said when we interviewed her at the Historical Society Annex where she was library-sitting with her friend, Betty Swan. "Betty and I do a lot of things together. Linn-Benton Community College had an elementary course in genealogy. I think Becky Kiger, Damaris Reynolds, Betty and I all took it, and we all came into the society about the same time."

Mary already had some material about her ancestors, plus family stories. "But it ain't necessarily so. That's my theme song for everybody." Mary, known to her friends as Mickey, has written up a summary of what she's done on her father's line, and has sent that to family members. She belongs to the Puget Sound Genealogy Society, and they have asked her to submit something about the McPherson family, who were pioneers in Washington. "There were plenty of McPhersons around Benton County, too, but they have nothing to do with me. I'm back to the Seventeenth Century in Scotland, thanks to the Latter Day Saints and their library in Salt Lake City."

She is planning to spend two weeks in January in Salt Lake, where she will work on her husband's Dutch line, people who came into New York when it was still New Amsterdam. Last year at the Salt Lake library she found a fancy bounty land certificate from the Revolution made out to one of her husband's ancestors. Another ancestor contributed his blue coat for the field of blue in the revolutionary flag. Mary has a letter he wrote, demanding payment for his coat. "My hunches have paid off," she says. One time in Reno, Nevada, when she was doing some searching, she picked up the newspaper. It had a "This Day in History" column, and there was her ancestor's name. He was listed as one of the men turning over the first spade of earth for the new mint.

Mary majored in history in college, and has put her knowledge to work. The family of her mother's mother came to Washington in the early 1880's. At the time her mother was born it was still a territory. Her grandfather had four brothers, and all five young men went to Alaska at the time of the gold rush. Mary has written to Dawson and obtained some Yukon gold claims.

"My mother was interested in all this," Mary says, "but she wouldn't talk about certified skeletons. My grandmother lived with us, and she and my mother would drop just a hint now and then. I've found certain things, but I haven't gotten to the bottom line."

Her advice to beginners: "If you have parents and grandparents, talk to them. I took a tape recorder to California a few years ago, and got some stories about early years in Kitsap County, Washington. My grandfather wanted to talk to me about Alaska, but I was young and it went in one ear and out the other."

PLEASE NOTE

Mary Hardenbrook has graciously agreed to oversee our field trips. She has determined that we can make a trip to the State Library in a rental van for $6-12 per person depending on the turnout. Hours are 8-5 M-F with closures on Jan 18th and maybe 21st. Come to the meeting and help plan when and where we go.

Our new Newsletter editor Teri Greene WILL be needing a co-editor. Please try to make time to volunteer for this important post.

If you did not receive a test email, you are not on our email list. Please contact Gene Newcomb to be included. Our scrapbooks record the history of BCGS. The first 25 years of books will be donated to the Museum and can be seen there.

Our meetings are held on the second Saturday of September through June, in the NE Dining Hall of the College United Methodist Church, on the east side of the parking lot, in the 1100 block of Philomath Blvd. Business meeting is at 10:00 AM with the program at 11:00 AM. Our Library, in the museum annex, will be open every Tuesday afternoon from 12:30 until 3:00 PM and after meetings on Saturdays. Members may check out up to five books and return books any time the library is open.
